

Glenbrook Men's Golf Association

Given the weather, it doesn't seem possible, but golf is, if not just around the corner, not too far down the road.

If you haven't done so already, now's the time to renew your Glenbrook membership, be it full or associate, and gear up for the warmth of companionship and the thrill of competition.

If you'd like to add to the level of both experiences, now's also the time to recruit new members for our gang. The qualifications aren't very rigorous: Men who like to play golf, are pleasant guys to be around, and who can show up at 8:30 on Wednesday mornings to get in 18 holes on one of the finest golf courses in the area.

Our season will kick off (or tee off) on April 21 with our usual format – for the first day, a four-man scramble. It's a good way to ease into the season and mix with fellas we haven't seen for the winter months, or whom we haven't met yet – those new members you're going to recruit, remember?

It isn't hard to sign up – just come on down, check in with me or Terry Flatt and shake hands all around. The cost is modest -- $30 dues for the season. After greens fees and cart rental are paid, we all kick in $5 for the pot, which is split among the top three scorers and that one lucky guy who makes closest to the pin.

If you have any questions, call me at (570) 421-3831 or e-mail at Peper@Live.com.

See you at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 21 (if not sooner)?
